

FOOL PROOF

My child, listen when your father corrects you. Don't neglect your mother's instruction. – Proverbs 1:8

A wise child accepts a parent's discipline, a mocker refuses to listen to correction. – Proverbs 13:1

The godly walk with integrity; blessed are their children who follow them. – Proverbs 20:7

Fathers, do not provoke your children to anger by the way you treat them. Rather, bring them up with the discipline and instruction that comes from the Lord.

Ephesians 6:4

“For the Lord disciplines those he loves, and he punishes each one he accepts as his child.” As you endure this divine discipline, remember that God is treating you as his own children. Who ever heard of a child who is never disciplined by its father? If God doesn’t discipline you as he does all of his children, it means that you are illegitimate and are not really his children at all.

Hebrews 12:6-8

For our earthly fathers disciplined us for a few years, doing the best they knew how. But God's discipline is always good for us, so that we might share in his holiness. No discipline is enjoyable while it is happening – it's painful! But afterward there will be a peaceful harvest of right living for those who are trained in this way.

Hebrews 12:10-11

Direct your children onto the right path, and when they are older, they will not leave it.

Proverbs 22:6

Better to live on a corner of the roof than share a house with a quarrelsome wife. – Proverbs 21:9 (NIV)

A wife of noble character who can find? ... Her husband has full confidence in her and lacks nothing of value. – Proverbs 31:10-11 (NIV)

Drink water from your own well – share your love only with your wife ... You should reserve it for yourselves. Never share it with strangers. – Proverbs 5:15, 17 (NIV)

Why, my son, be intoxicated with another man's wife? ... For your ways are in full view of the Lord, and he examines all your paths. – Proverbs 5:20-21 (NIV)

This is a great mystery, but it is an illustration of the way Christ and the church are one. So again I say, each man must love his wife as he loves himself, and the wife must respect her husband.
