“Deliverance”

Luke 10:8–9,17

Message by Rob Bashioum

Worship led by Noah Reed

Music:

Christ Is Enough	I Exalt Thee	King of My Heart
Come To The Alter	No Longer Slaves

Sermon:

“If you enter a town and it welcomes you, eat whatever is set before you. Heal the sick, and tell them, ‘The Kingdom of God is near you now...’” The seventy-two returned with joy and said, “Lord, even the demons submit to us in your name.”

Luke 10:8–9,17

Announce the Kingdom of Heaven is Here

Heal the Sick

Cast out Evil Spirits

The enemy is real and we need to deal with him.

Yes, Satan is real and has a plan for your life.

Be strong in the Lord and in his mighty power. Put on all of God’s armor so that you will be able to stand firm against all strategies of the devil. For we are not fighting against flesh-and-blood enemies, but against evil rulers and authorities of the unseen world, against mighty powers in this dark world, and against evil spirits in the heavenly places.

Ephesians 6:10–12

Can Christians be influenced by demons?

What does this look like?

Deliverance is about acknowledging the doors we have opened allowing the enemy's presence and learning how to close them.

I believe that most of our spiritual freedom comes when we learn the truth of who God is and we actually believe what He has said about Himself, about us and about His workings in our lives. Trusting God, along with resisting temptation, repenting of sin, renouncing the works of the devil and forgiving those who have harmed us accounts for 98 percent of our deliverance.

Remember:

- Traumatic events
- Sins or questionable activities
- Any involvement in the occult
- Generational sins patterns
- Attitudes and emotions that control you

Renounce

"In the name of my Lord Jesus I renounce the enemy using _____ as a gateway into my life. I renounce you using it as a reason to stay in my life."

Reclaim

Declare Truth and reclaim that space by receiving Spirit and experiencing the Father's love.
