“If the Lord Jesus did not presume to begin His public ministry or perform a single service as our Teacher and Example until He received the Holy Spirit, what right have we to go forth in our self-sufficiency and attempt to minister at the altar of Christian service until we have been endued with power from on high?”

– A.B. Simpson

But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes upon you. And you will be my witnesses, telling people about me everywhere—in Jerusalem, throughout Judea, in Samaria, and to the ends of the earth.

— Acts 1:8

Being light means being prepared to articulate the Gospel simply and clearly

Being light means understanding planting is as vital as harvesting

You know the saying, 'Four months between planting and harvest.' But I say, wake up and look around. The fields are already ripe for harvest. The harvesters are paid good wages, and the fruit they harvest is people brought to eternal life...

What joy awaits both the planter and the harvester alike!
You know the saying, 'One plants and another harvests.'
And it's true. I sent you to harvest where you didn't plant; others had already done the work, and now you will get to gather the harvest.

– John 4:35-38

Being light is noticing the people of peace around you

Go for I send you out as lambs in the midst of wolves. Carry no money belt, no bag, no shoes; and greet no one on the way. Whatever house you enter, first say, 'Peace be to this house.' If a man of peace is there, your peace will rest on him; but if not, it will return to you.

– Luke 10:3-6
