And he is the head (arche) of the body, the church; he is the beginning and the firstborn from among the dead, so that in everything he might have the supremacy. Colossians 1:18

Only two or at the most three people can speak in tongues and there must be interpretation (14:27-28).

Only 2 or 3 may prophesy, and they must take turns each weighing the words of others (14:29-32).

Women are to be silent in church and inquire of their husbands at home (14:34-35).

Hearing that Jesus had silenced (phimoo) the Sadducees, the Pharisees got together. Matthew 22:34

But Jesus rebuked the evil spirit, saying, “Be silent (phimoo), and come out of him!” Mark 1:25

And when the voice had spoken, Jesus was found alone. And they kept silent (sigao) and told no one in those days anything of what they had seen. Luke 9:36

A man ought not to cover his head, since he is the image and glory of God; but woman is the glory of man. For man did not come from woman, but woman from man; neither was man created for woman, but woman for man. It is for this reason that a woman ought to have authority over her own head, because of the angels. Nevertheless, in the Lord, woman is not independent of man, nor is man independent of woman. For as woman came from man, so also man is born of woman. But everything comes from God. 1 Cor. 11:7-12
