Renounce

“Renouncing” is not prayer. It is a declaration or command to the enemy. It is saying “no” to the enemy.

We are human, but we don't wage war as humans do. We use God's mighty weapons, not worldly weapons, to knock down the strongholds of human reasoning and to destroy false arguments. We destroy every proud obstacle that keeps people from knowing God. We capture their rebellious thoughts and teach them to obey Christ.

— 2 Corinthians 10:3-5

So humble yourselves before God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you.

— James 4:7

“In the name of the Lord Jesus Christ, I renounce the enemy using this—(name what you have listed)—as a gateway into my life. I renounce your using it as a reason for staying.

“I belong to the Lord Jesus Christ, I am His child, and He lives in my heart by His Holy Spirit, so you may not use—(name it)—as grounds for involvement in my life any longer.

“I command you in the name and authority of the Lord Jesus Christ to leave me and go to where Jesus sends you.”

So humble yourselves before God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you. Come close to God, and God will come close to you.

— James 4:7-8

“I give this whole area of my life to you. I give it to You, I love You and I want to belong to You, body, soul, and spirit. I want You to be Lord in this area of my life. I cannot handle it, but You can, so I give it to You.”
