

An aerial, high-angle photograph of a large formation of soldiers in a desert environment. The soldiers are arranged in a large, roughly rectangular shape, with a central gap. They are wearing helmets and carrying rifles. The entire image is overlaid with a semi-transparent dark red color.

THE INVISIBLE WAR

An aerial, high-angle photograph of a large formation of soldiers in a desert environment. The soldiers are arranged in a large, roughly rectangular shape, with a central gap. They are wearing helmets and carrying rifles. The entire image is overlaid with a semi-transparent dark red color.

On our own we don't stand a chance in the invisible war

Therefore, put on every piece of God's armor so you will be able to resist the enemy in the time of evil. Then after the battle you will still be standing firm.

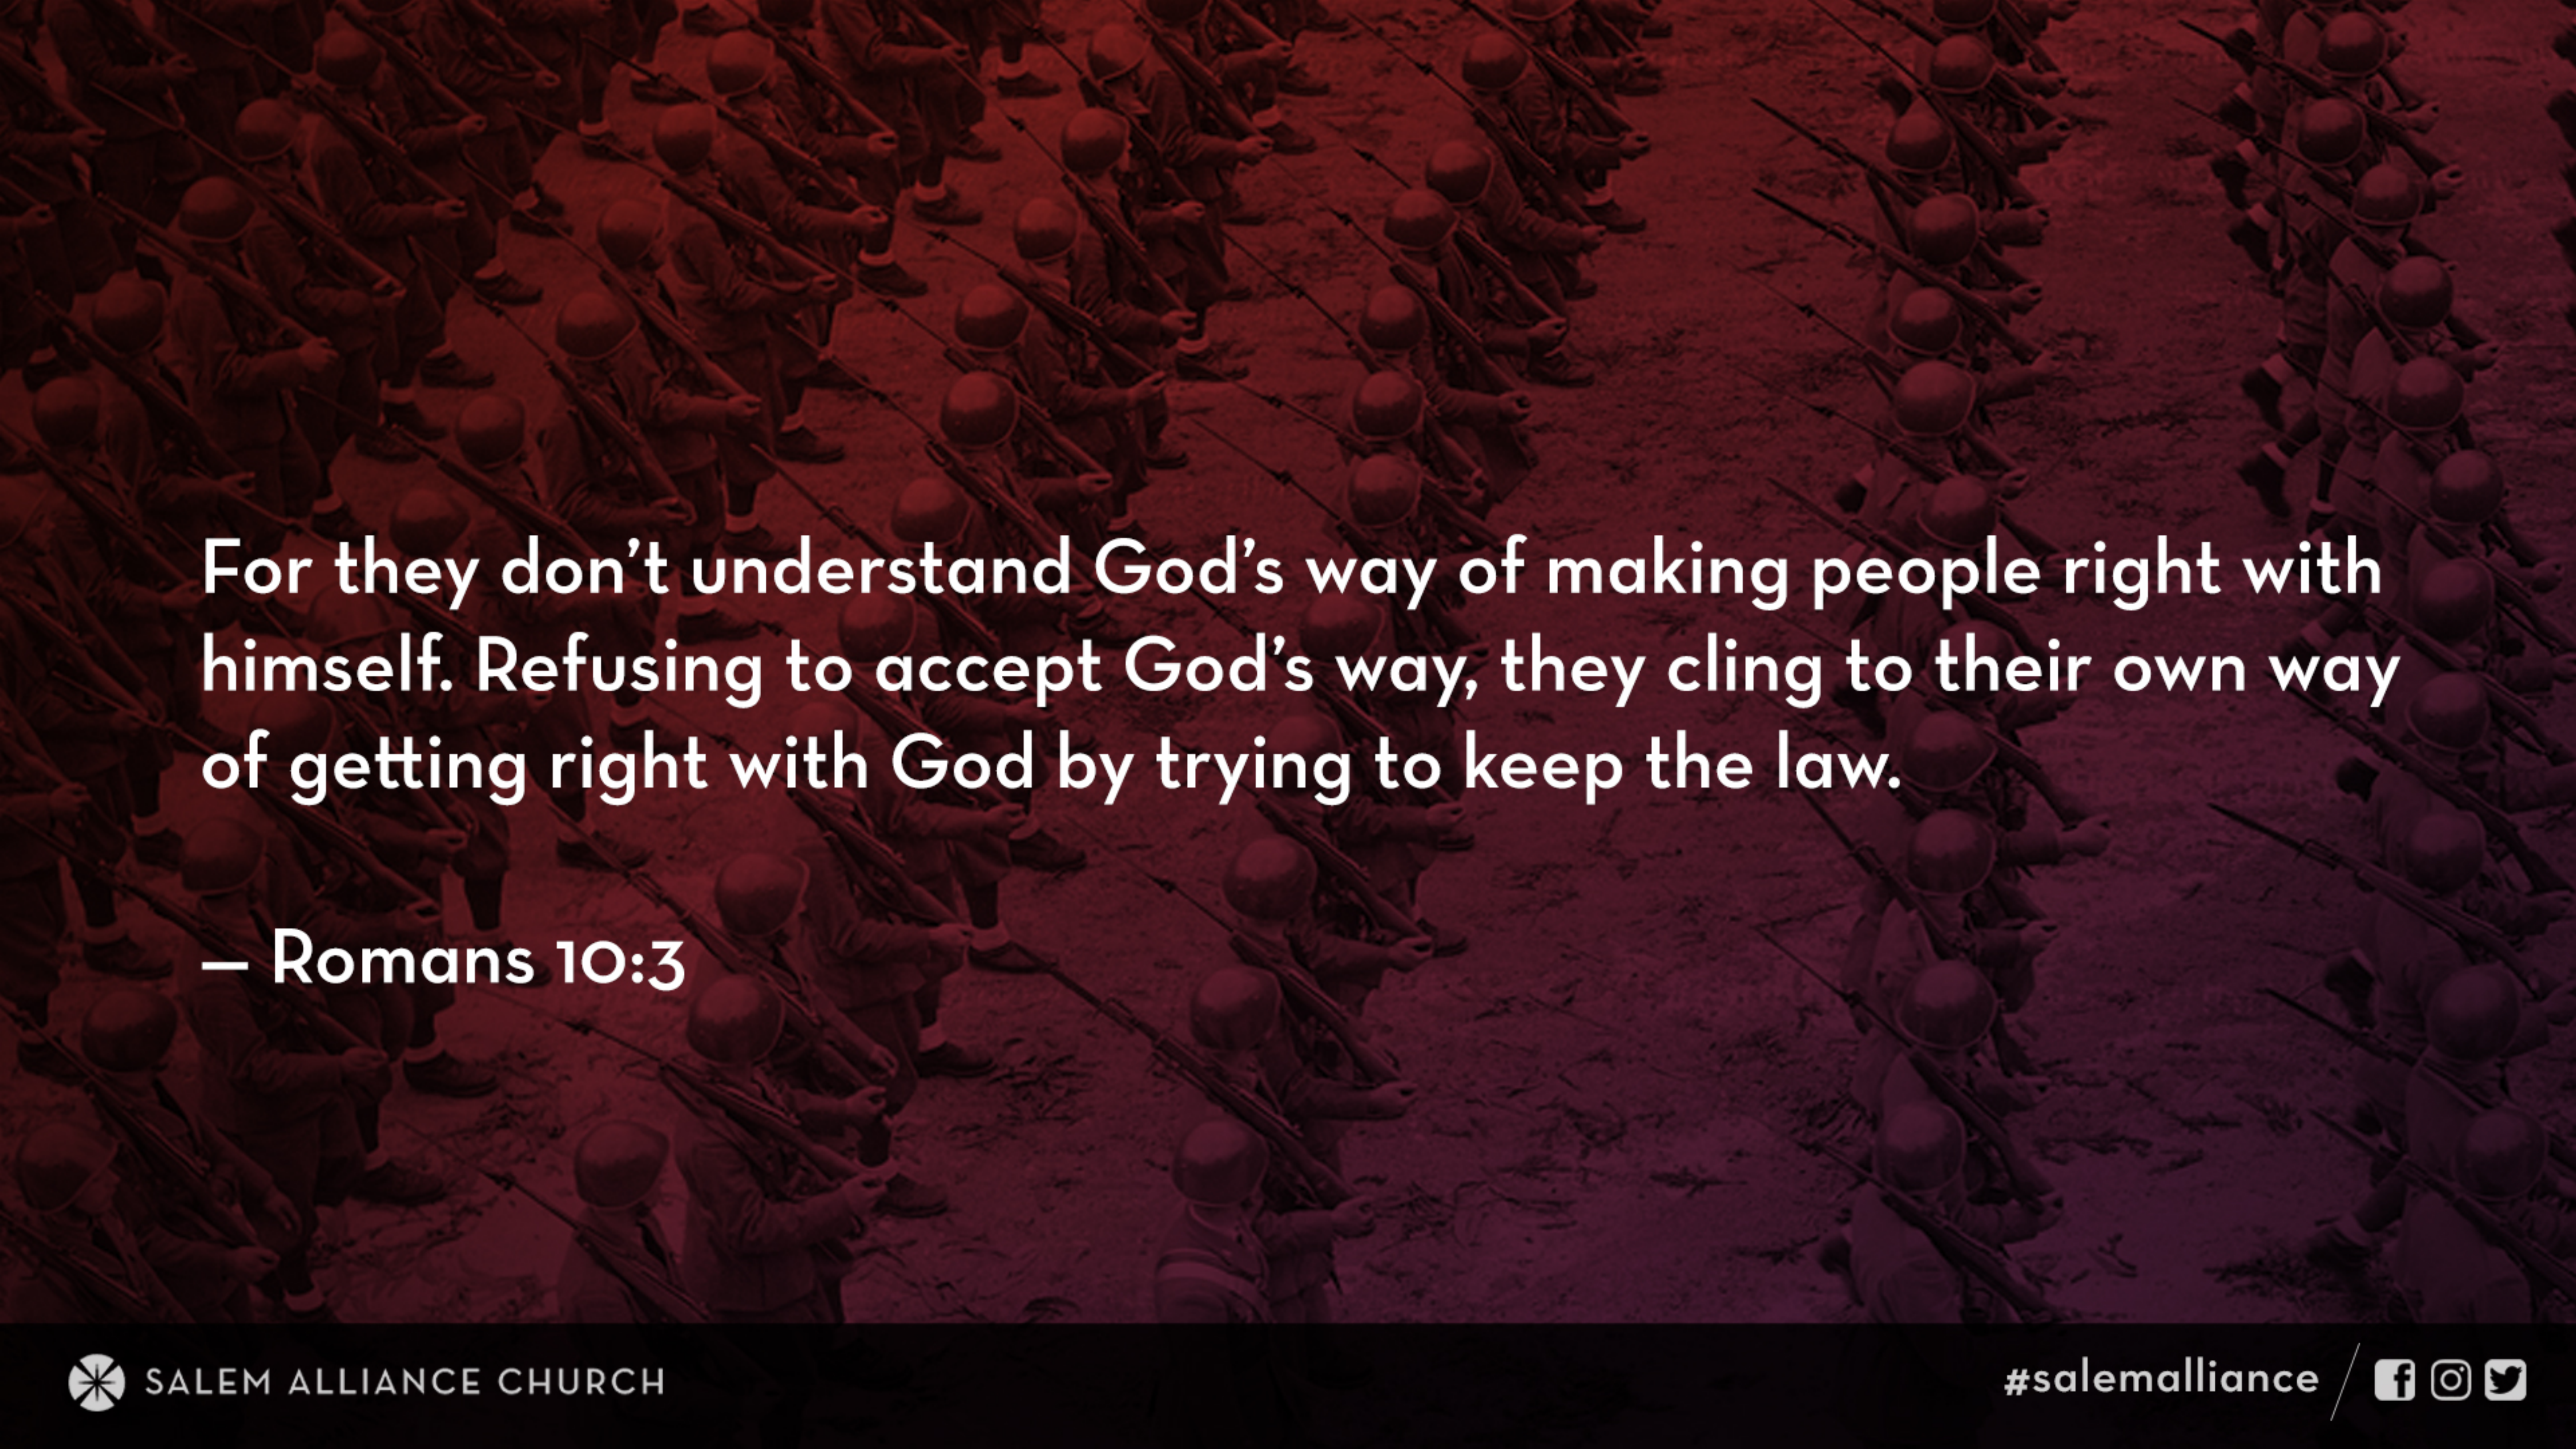

– Ephesians 6:13

Righteousness – right standing, a judicial verdict;
to pass inspection, approval

For they don't understand God's way of making people right with himself. Refusing to accept God's way, they cling to their own way of getting right with God by trying to keep the law.

– Romans 10:3

We are made right with God by placing our faith in Jesus...

Yet God, in his grace, freely makes us right in his sight.
He did this through Christ Jesus when he freed us from the penalty for our sins.

– Romans 3:22 & Romans 3:24

An aerial, high-angle photograph of a large formation of soldiers in a desert environment. The soldiers are arranged in a grid pattern, facing forward. They are wearing helmets and carrying rifles. The image is overlaid with a semi-transparent dark red filter. The text "How do we put on the body armor?" is centered in white.

How do we put on the body armor?

An aerial, high-angle photograph of a large formation of soldiers in a desert environment. The soldiers are wearing helmets and carrying rifles, arranged in precise, parallel lines that recede into the distance. The entire image is overlaid with a semi-transparent dark red color.

How do we put on the body armor?

Identify what is serving as your righteousness.

How do we put on the body armor?

Identify what is serving as your righteousness.

Receive the righteousness of Jesus by faith.

Faith shows the reality of what we hope for; it is the evidence of things we cannot see.

— Hebrews 11:1

An aerial, high-angle photograph of a large formation of soldiers in a desert environment. The soldiers are arranged in a large, roughly rectangular shape, with a central gap. They are wearing helmets and carrying rifles. The entire image is overlaid with a semi-transparent dark red filter. The text "How do we hold up the shield?" is centered in white.

How do we hold up the shield?

An aerial, high-angle photograph of a large formation of soldiers in a desert environment. The soldiers are arranged in a grid pattern, holding rifles. The image is overlaid with a semi-transparent dark red color. The text is centered in the middle of the image.

How do we hold up the shield?
Know God and His truth.

How do we hold up the shield?

Know God and His truth.

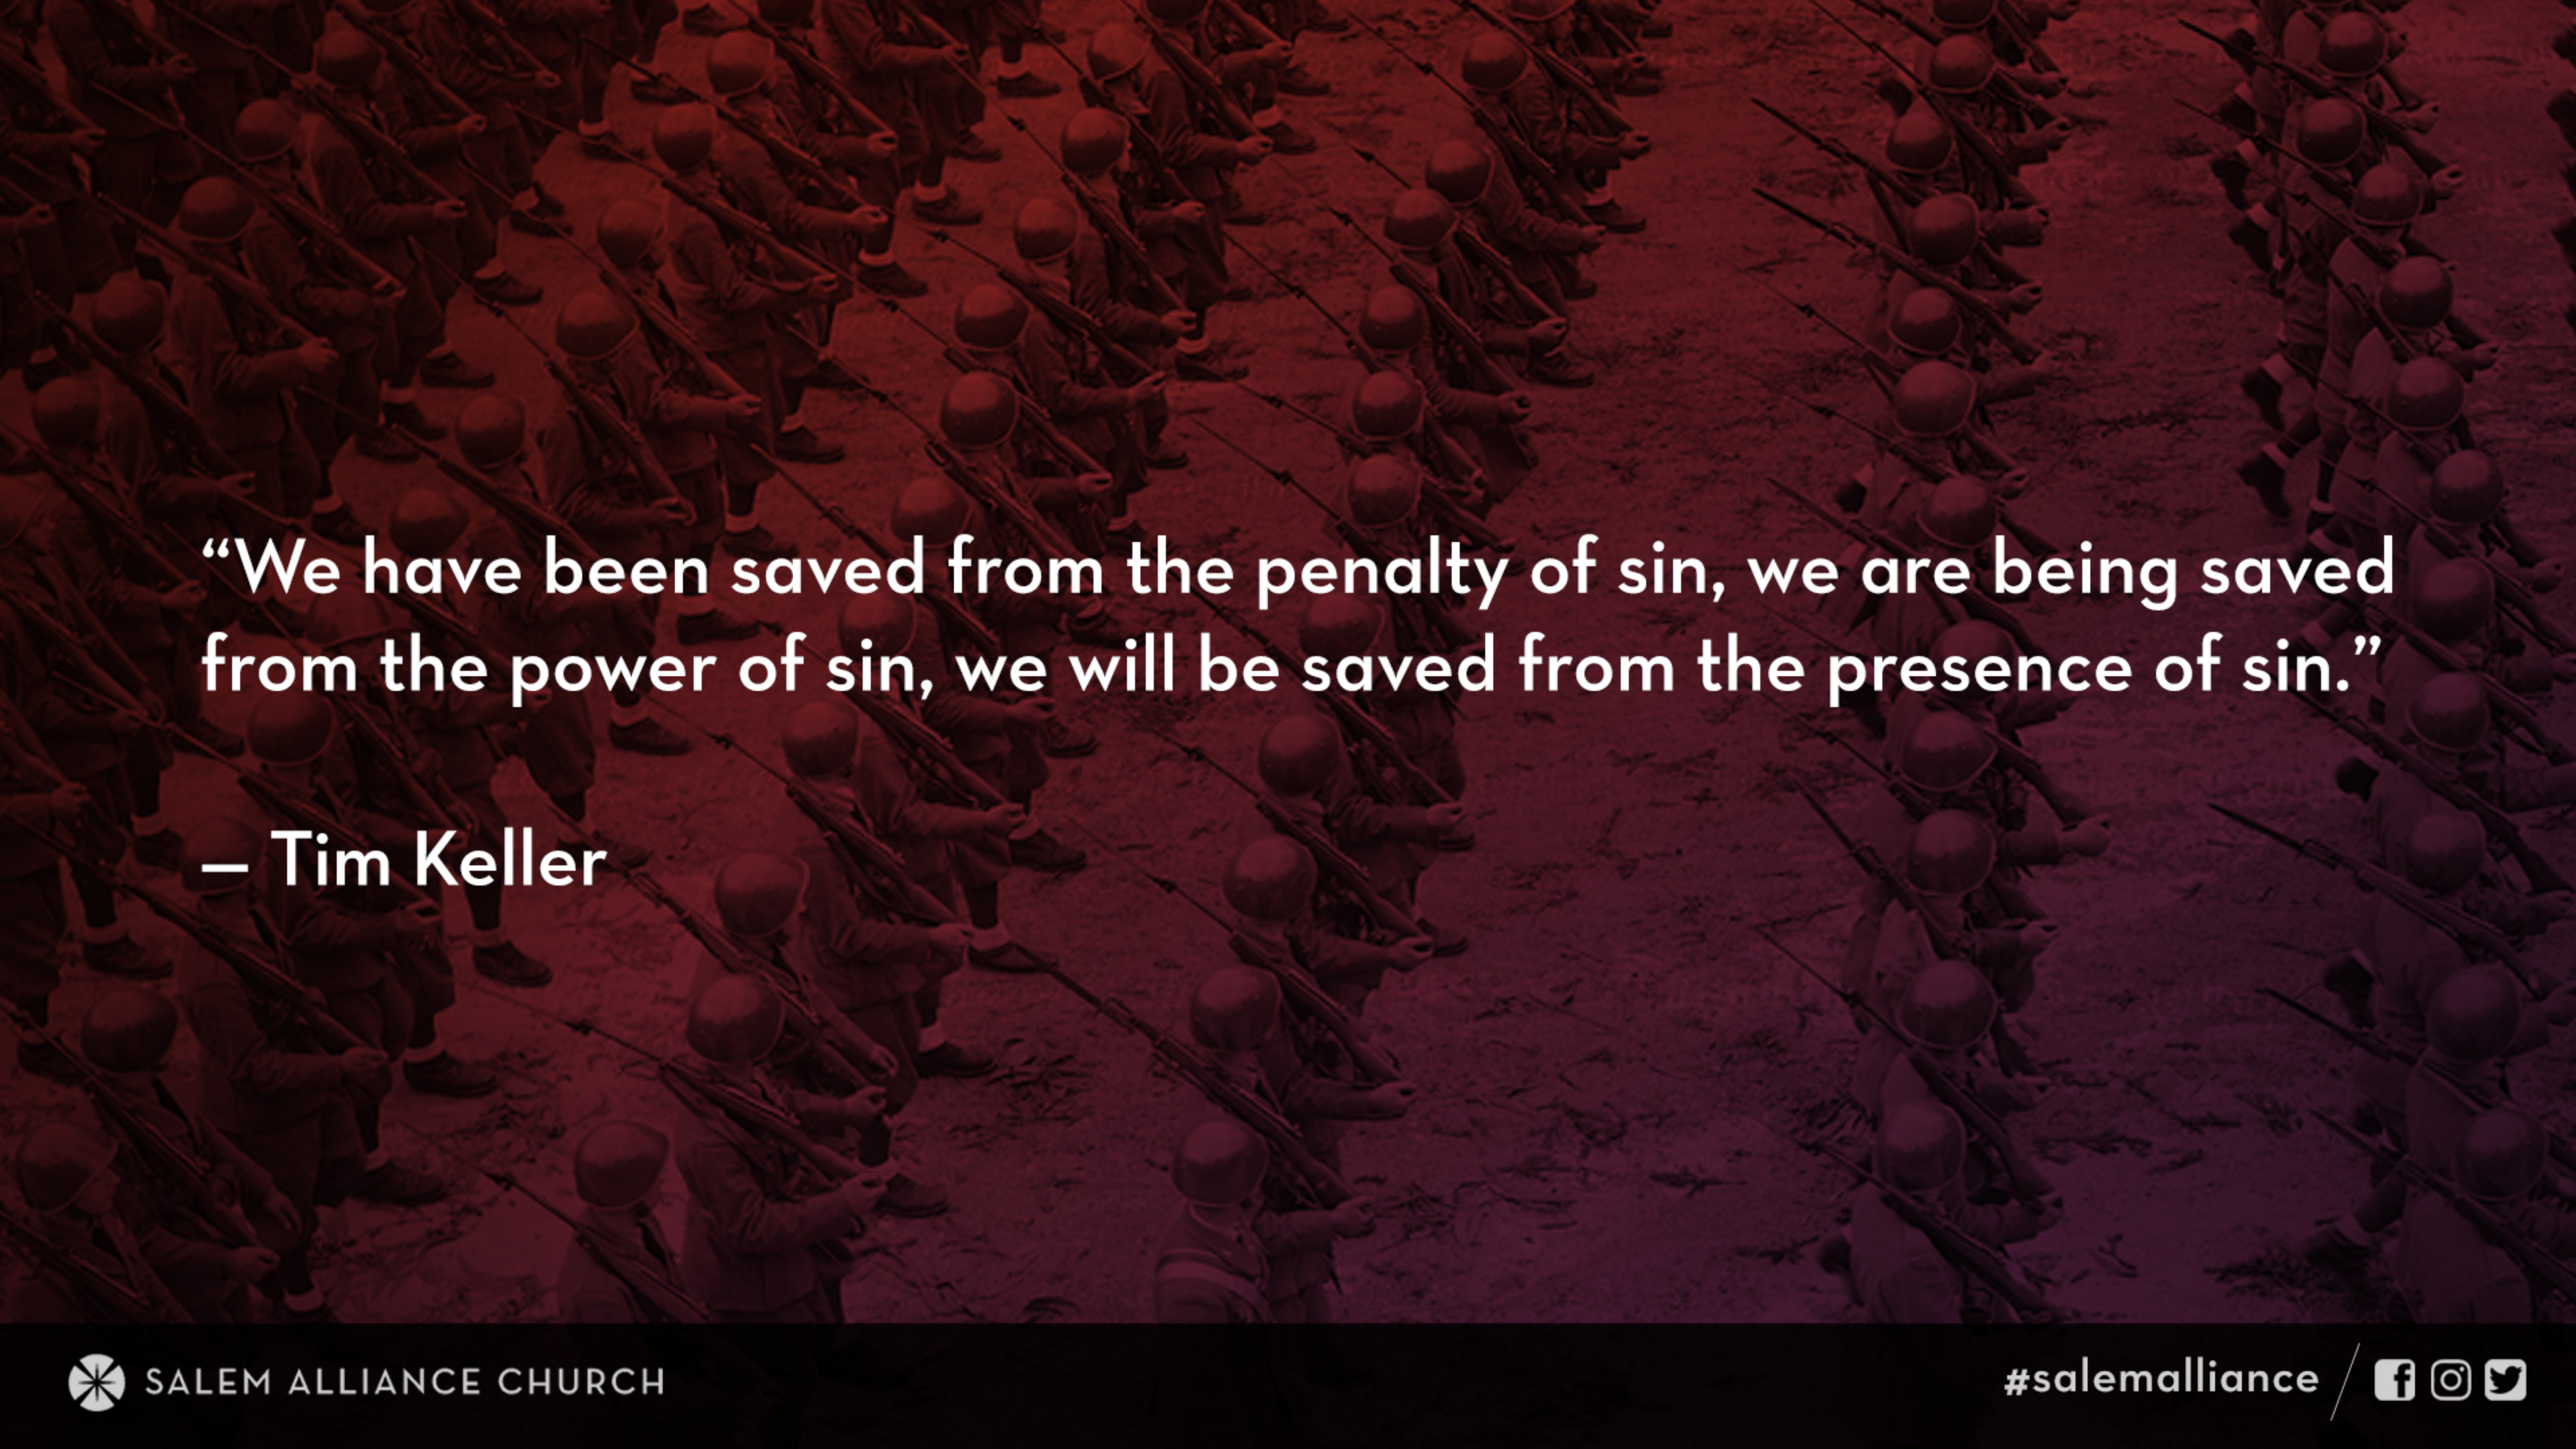

Shoot your own arrows.

“The enemy lays his brats at these Christian’s doors, and they, in their simplicity, take them in and nurse them for their own children.”

– William Gurnall

An aerial, high-angle photograph of a large formation of soldiers in a desert environment. The soldiers are arranged in a grid pattern, holding rifles. The image is heavily tinted with a dark red color, creating a somber and intense atmosphere. The perspective is from directly above, looking down on the troops.

“We have been saved from the penalty of sin, we are being saved from the power of sin, we will be saved from the presence of sin.”

– Tim Keller

An aerial, high-angle photograph of a large formation of soldiers in a desert environment. The soldiers are wearing helmets and carrying rifles, arranged in precise, parallel lines that recede into the distance. The entire image is overlaid with a semi-transparent dark red color.

How do we put on the helmet of salvation?

An aerial photograph of a large formation of soldiers in a trench, overlaid with a semi-transparent red filter. The soldiers are arranged in neat rows, holding rifles. The perspective is from above, looking down into the trench.

How do we put on the helmet of salvation?

Surrender your life to Jesus.

An aerial, high-angle photograph of a large formation of soldiers in a desert environment. The soldiers are arranged in a grid pattern, facing forward. They are wearing helmets and holding rifles. The image is overlaid with a semi-transparent dark red filter. The text is centered over the middle of the image.

How do we put on the helmet of salvation?

Surrender your life to Jesus.

“One Day” thinking.