MATTHEW 24:5

Jesus told them, "Don't let anyone mislead you, for many will come in my name, claiming, 'I am the Messiah.'

#salemalliance

MATTHEW 24:23-26

“Then if anyone tells you, ‘Look, here is the Messiah,’ or ‘There he is,’ don’t believe it. For false messiahs and false prophets will rise up and perform great signs and wonders so as to deceive, if possible, even God’s chosen ones. See, I have warned you about this ahead of time.

#salemalliance

MATTHEW 24:27

“So if someone tells you, ‘Look, the Messiah is out in the desert,’ don’t bother to go and look. Or, ‘Look, he is hiding here,’ don’t believe it! For as the lightning flashes in the east and shines to the west, so it will be when the Son of Man comes.

CALUM STEPHEN FOWLER

Steve and Trina Fowler of Hood River have a son,

Danes, C.E. and
Colo., and Virgin

Baby Calum just wouldn't wait

Someone is going to have to teach baby Calum some patience, or he's likely to be early for the rest of his life.

Calum just couldn't wait to be born. In fact, his delivery Thursday evening was in Hood River Memorial Hospital's lobby.

The son of Trina and Steve Fowler was born at 6:16 p.m., only a half-hour after his mother went into labor — a fast labor, with initial contractions coming every 16 seconds, said Barbara Young, Hood River Memorial Hospital's community relations director.

Labor began at 5:45 p.m., just after the family finished supper. After getting a friend to set for the Fowler's three other children, Steve and Trina raced from their Indian Creek Road home to the hospital.

When they entered through the lobby, instead of the emergency room, Calum began to make his entrance; he wouldn't wait until his mom got to the Family Birth Center.

The delivery occurred on the lobby couch.

A camera in the lobby alerted the emergency room what was occurring. Two obstetrics nurses, Jan Brauer and Jane Crown, hurried to the scene. By the time they arrived, Calum was on his way. Steve Fowler had already delivered the head.
