HONOR:

To esteem, to show great respect to ascribe weight to value at a price.

LEVITICUS 19:32

Stand up in the presence of the elderly, and show respect for the aged. Fear your God. I am the Lord. You shall stand up before the gray head and honor the face of an old man, and you shall fear your God: I am the Lord.

“Our day is indifferent to old ideas, and even considers that their age makes their value questionable, but jumps at a new idea with enthusiasm and high hope - a hope which is high because it has not been accustomed to being disappointed... I make no guess as to when this disposition was born to us, but it certainly is ours, was not possessed by any century before us, is our particular mark and badge.”

PROVERBS 20:29

The glory of the young is their strength; the gray hair of experience is the splendor of the old.

DEUTERONOMY 32:7

Remember the days of old; consider the years long past. Ask your father, and he will tell you, your elders, and they will teach you.

1 TIMOTHY 5:1-2

Never speak harshly to an older man, but appeal to him respectfully as you would to your own father. Talk to younger men as you would to your own brothers. Treat older women as you would your mother, and treat younger women with all purity as you would your own sisters.

ROMANS 13:1

Everyone must submit to governing authorities. For all authority comes from God, and those in positions of authority have been placed there by God.

Christians should remember that politics is comparatively unimportant in the long run. From God's perspective, "one true Christian, however humble his birth and low his standing; however poor or ignorant or unknown is more valuable than many great men of the world, kings and princes, men of great power and policy that are honored, and make a great fissure, but are wicked men and reprobates."
