Sermon:

Strong starts don't always lead to strong finishes.

We need to recognize our own susceptibility

What were the distractors or derailers?

They were derailed by unbelief.

They were derailed by rebellion.

The were derailed by greed.

Unbelief – Rebellion – Greed

What preventative steps can we take to avoid a similar outcome?

Pause and pop the hood

Remember the markers

I will teach you hidden lessons from our past—stories we have heard and known, stories our ancestors handed down to us. We will not hide these truths from our children; we will tell the next generation about the glorious deeds of the Lord, about his power and his mighty wonders. For he issued his laws to Jacob; he gave his instructions to Israel. He commanded our ancestors to teach them to their children, so the next generation might know them—even the children not yet born—and they in turn will teach their own children. So each generation should set its hope anew on God, not forgetting his glorious miracles and obeying his commands. Then they will not be like their ancestors—stubborn, rebellious, and unfaithful, refusing to give their hearts to God.
