Sermon:

God loves to work anonymously

There are six things the Lord hates—no, seven things he detests: haughty eyes, a lying tongue, hands that kill the innocent, a heart that plots evil, feet that race to do wrong, a false witness who pours out lies, a person who sows discord in a family.

Proverbs 6:16-19

If Xerxes doesn't promote Haman

If Haman doesn't find out Mordecai is a Jew

If Xerxes doesn't have an empty treasury

If Haman doesn't roll the dice

We may throw the dice, but the Lord determines how they fall.

We may throw the dice, but the Lord determines how they fall.

Proverbs 16:33

We want to see God's faithfulness in Realtime

Recognize that sometimes His faithfulness is invisible

It's not about auditioning for a role in God's kingdom—it's about obedience when he writes you into the story.

Consider where God might be asking you to partner in the story He is writing.

God's written you into the Neighborhood you call home—are you writing a story in that scene?
God's written you into this city for such a time as this—where is he inviting you to enter the story He is writing?

Throw a party and connect the dots.
