“Experiencing Rest and Doubt”

Matthew 11:1–6

Message by Rob Bashium

Sermon:

Rest exposes Doubt (and that’s not a bad thing)

When Jesus had finished giving these instructions to his twelve disciples, he went out to teach and preach in towns throughout the region. John the Baptist, who was in prison, heard about all the things the Messiah was doing. So he sent his disciples to ask Jesus, “Are you the Messiah we’ve been expecting, or should we keep looking for someone else?” Jesus told them, “Go back to John and tell him what you have heard and seen—the blind see, the lame walk, those with leprosy are cured, the deaf hear, the dead are raised to life, and the Good News is being preached to the poor.” And he added, “God blesses those who do not fall away because of me.”
Matthew 11:1-6

In doubt, we can go to Jesus with our questions.

Expect grace, not anger, in His response.

In doubt, stand on the testimonies of others.

I do believe, help my unbelief.

“This is what the LORD says, he who made the earth, the LORD who formed it and established it—the LORD is his name: ‘Call to me and I will answer you and tell you great and unsearchable things you do not know.’”

Jeremiah 33:2–3

I bless you with the truths of the kingdom—may unsearchable things be revealed to you.

I bless you with fresh revelation of the Truth of who Christ is, may it be yours as you walk toward your doubt.

I bless you with Grace, Health and Peace in this coming week.
