

QUESTION

What stood out to you in the sermon this week?

IDEA 1

Jennifer's main point throughout the sermon this week was that it's the heart of our heavenly Father to be with his people. Despite this reality, so many of us have a hard time accepting and entering into this kind of intimacy in God's presence. When we struggle with this, it's often because of one of two issues – a false view of God or a false view of self.

QUESTION

What false view of God or yourself hinders you from approaching God as a loving Father?

IDEA 2

Jennifer shared a variety of scripture with us that reveals God's heart to be with us. His Presence was the plan at creation, is what He has fought for throughout the story of humanity, and is the final promise of eternity.

SCRIPTURE

Take 5 mins to slowly read and meditate on Hebrews 10:19-22. (Read out loud for the group or encourage the group to read these verses on their smart phone or Bible if they have one available. Whatever you prefer.)

AND SINCE WE HAVE A GREAT HIGH PRIEST WHO RULES OVER GOD'S HOUSE, LET US GO RIGHT INTO THE PRESENCE OF GOD WITH SINCERE HEARTS FULLY TRUSTING HIM.

HEBREWS 10:21-22

QUESTIONS

What stood out to you as you read these verses?

How do these verses challenge your false view of God or self?

WORSHIP

Listen to the worship song - Run to the Father by Cody Carnes (Click on the link to view - <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=HcpeLDp0Foo>).

As you do, close your eyes and picture your loving Father with arms wide open as you run to Him.

PRAYER

“Father, thank you that you love us and want to be present with us. Holy Spirit would you reshape our false views of you and ourselves and remind us this week that we can enter our heavenly Father’s presence with full assurance of His love. Amen.”
