Being A "Prayer Missionary"

	Sunday Prayer of Blessing	Monday Prayer Needs	Tuesday Prayer Needs	Wednesday Prayer Needs	Thursday Prayer Needs	Friday Prayer Needs	Saturday Prayer Needs
WEEK ONE: USA Based Workers	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Doug &amp; Anya Holcomb</li> <li>• Paul &amp; Marie Lehmann</li> <li>• Don Sappington</li> <li>• Rick Stein</li> <li>• Donovan &amp; Stephanie Wadsworth</li> </ul>	Tenacity, perseverance, and creativity to serve effectively in light of the continuing COVID restrictions and struggles.	The ability for families to grow together spiritually through everyday life and through ministry together; courage for the workers' children to live out their faith in their schools.	Increase opportunities and creativity to engage with locals, meeting them where they are at; that people would have restored trust in the institution of the Church and become curious about faith in Jesus.	An abundance of faithful volunteers in a time of decreased church involvement; a surplus of resources in order to support our workers in their ministry.	Rescue and restoration in the lives of children and adults who are exploited in the human trafficking industry; for the veil of evil to be removed from the eyes of the oppressors.	Peace for refugees experiencing trauma and suffering; for the community to have an open heart to receive our new neighbors and to overflow with generosity.
WEEK TWO: Africa South America	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Robin &amp; Wendy Gutierrez</li> <li>• Mark &amp; Jennifer Morris</li> <li>• Stephen &amp; Haley Weiland</li> </ul>	Protection of workers and their families; peace of mind in the midst of tension and conflict; the Lord's peace and justice in countries facing war and uprisings.	Unity of team members (both remote and on the field) in order to be examples of light in a dark world; for workers to live with integrity, spiritual purity, and increasing faith.	The cultural knowledge and sensitivity needed in order to engage with the locals well; the ability to absorb, learn, and speak the local language; to be able to use all these things to further the Gospel.	Opportunities to engage the community with the Word of God to non-believers; the nurturing and edification of new believers; perseverance and energization of old believers.	Refreshing time of worship and praise with the Lord; the ability to learn from the worshiping styles of the locals; to find peace and rest in learning new ways to connect and worship God.	Strengthen marriage and family relationships; an outpouring of God's peace and presence in their lives.
WEEK THREE: Europe Middle East	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Grant &amp; Dakota Shaw</li> <li>• Middle East Partnership Life Centers (ESL &amp; classes)</li> <li>• Arab Lands workers</li> <li>• Bible Institute workers</li> <li>• RTI Senior Residencies</li> </ul>	An overwhelming sense of the Lord's provision and presence; an increased energy and passion for the ministry at hand in a season of change and unknowns.	An increased passion in the hearts of Europeans for the faith; a resurgence of believers throughout Europe.	The relational and spiritual success of ministries and Life Centers/classes; trust between students and teachers; openness and hospitality shared between the locals and workers.	The unity of local churches despite denominational and leadership style differences.	An increase in supernatural dreams and experiences in the Muslim community; to increase the numbers of Muslims seeking saving faith in Jesus; the protection of Muslim Background Believers.	Protection and safety from the darkness of spiritual warfare; clear and confident spiritual discernment; power and authority from Jesus to challenge spiritual darkness.
WEEK FOUR: Asia	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Iris</li> <li>• Joel &amp; Debbie Chute</li> <li>• Mr. &amp; Mrs. Fong</li> <li>• Paul &amp; Lori Vernon</li> <li>• Debbie Vik</li> <li>• Stephen &amp; Ashley Weiss</li> <li>• Cameron West</li> </ul>	A clear vision from Holy Spirit for effective ministry; a heart and passion for the people and work; the ability to let go of old methods and embrace the new in order to share God's love well.	For the veil of spiritual darkness to be removed from the eyes of locals; freedom from the bondage of idol worship.	Provision of time, resources, and team members; reputable and favorable connections with the government; wisdom in cross-cultural interactions.	Personal protection for the workers and those they minister to; perseverance; for the Lord to ease the ache of homesickness and culture shock.	True and lasting joy in the suffering; for an ever deepening faith and trust in the Lord despite trials and hardships.	For the Lord to transform the hearts and minds of national and local leaders as well as religious leaders.

Thank you for following the lead of the Holy Spirit in how to pray for our international workers.

This calendar reflects prayer requests from our workers.
